The Regal Shoe.

Finest Shoe Made==Only $3.50.

For Fall and Winter you ought to wear the Regal Shoe.

They are the only high grade shoes made which sell at a popular price.

The low price is due solely to the fact that we have revolutionized shoemaking methods, and by bringing the shoes straight from the calf to you save you the money which would otherwise go to the useless middlemen.

Other shoes carry five profits--the Regal but one.

In other shoes you pay more for the profits than you do for the shoes.

In the Regals you get the finest materials ever put into shoes.

You get the highest-priced and most skilled workmanship in the shoemaking business. You get more style, fit, comfort and long wear than any other shoe can give you. You have the choice of 147 styles and 121 sizes.

Regal Shoes made under ordinary methods would cost you $6.00.

We control absolutely, for use in the Regal Shoes, the famous King Calf, formerly used by high-priced custom shoemakers. In our patent leather shoes we use Heyl's French patent calf, conceded to be the best made.

We have only one price. When you go into Regal stores you don't find that the shoes you want cost twice the ad-

You don't encounter clerks who, in order to retain their positions, must sell a certain percentage of high-priced shoes. You find all the styles, the highest quality known, and you know wnat the price is without asking. Regal Shoes are sold only in our stores and by mail.

Democratic Horns Seem Permanently Locked Over Norris and Holmead.

Friends of the Former Issue a Statement and Those of the Latter Seeking Legal Aid.

Like Banquo's ghost, the split in local democratic ranks will not down. A statement reiterating the claim that Mr. James L. Norris was regularly chosen as the candidate of the democratic central committee to succeed the late Lawrence Gardner as member of the national democratic committee was issued last night. It was signed by John A. Clarke, chairman and member representing the twenty-first district; J. Fred Kelley, secretary and member repre senting the thirteenth district; John Maher, senting the thirteenth district; John Maher, representing the third district; Arthur Small, representing the fourth district; T. Wittekindt, representing the sixteenth district; Jackson Yates, representing the seventeenth district (proxy); Edward Lynch, representing the twentieth Edward Lynch, representing the twentieth district, and Mr. Robert E. Mattingly, proxy for John B. Miller of the twentysecond district, certified that it was correct. It recited in detail the claims with which the public is already familiar that the election of Mr. Norris was legal and regular, and declared that twelve of the twenty-two members of the central committee will certify that Mr. Norris should represent the District of Columbia on the national body. Courts May Be Called On.

While this statement was being prepared the adherents of Mr. Holmead, who are as emphatic in their claim that he is the choice of the central committee as those of Mr. Norris are that he is, were also actively at work.
